

For the occasion of the 60th Annual Commission on the Status of Women (CSW)

FAO, WHO and UNICEF

Request the pleasure of your presence at the Side Event

Investing in women's nutrition for healthy, smart and more sustainable societies

Monday, 21 March 2016, 10:00 – 11:15am

Ex-Press Bar, 3rd Floor, GA Building

United Nations Headquarters, New York, NY, 10017

Entrance via UN Visitor's Entrance on 46th Street, 1st Avenue

This event aims to highlight why good nutrition for all, and women in particular, is essential to achieve the SDGs. By showcasing specific examples of effective nutrition interventions, the event will demonstrate how societies can become healthier, smarter, more sustainable and more equal by investing in women's nutrition.

Join us on twitter: #InvestinNutrition

Confirmed Speakers include:

H.E. Mrs. Esther Lungu, First Lady of Zambia

H.E. Mr. Antonio de Aguiar Patriota, PR of Mission of Brazil to the UN

H.E. Mr. Fodé Seck, PR of Mission of Senegal to the UN

Dr. Natela Menabde, Executive Director of the WHO Office to the UN

Werner Schultink, Chief of Nutrition, UNICEF

Carla Mucavi, Director, FAO Liaison Office in NY

Paloma Duran, Director of the SDG Fund, UNDP

Lucy Martinez Sullivan, Executive Director of 1,000 Days

with a video message from Dr. Sania Nishtar, President of Heartfile & WHO ECHO Commission co-chair

To RSVP or for more information, please contact: WHO Office at the United Nations; +1 646 626 6056, wun@whoun.org

RSVP by 16 March. For entry purposes, please indicate on your RSVP if you do NOT hold a UN Grounds Pass.

