

BRINGING POLICIES TO LIFE

Translating global nutrition policies into country practice

FAO/Giulio Napolitano

THURSDAY 18 OCTOBER 2018

Red Room • FAO Headquarters, Rome

18:00-19:30 CET

Refreshments will be provided

TRANSLATION AND WEBCAST AVAILABLE

Once a nutrition policy is created, there are numerous factors that shape and determine how that policy is operationalized, and ultimately, the impact it will have. This event aims to provide insight on how policies translate into action on the ground, underscoring pivotal issues that should be taken into consideration when nutrition policies are being developed.

Learn about country experiences as well as related global trends, highlighted by researchers and practitioners. We invite you to join the discussion and share your inspirational stories.
